A storehouse of training materials at your fingertips.

Do you need to develop a new technology training workshop for your campus? Find out what other UNC campuses have created on the topic first. The UNC TLT Training Compendium offers a storehouse of training materials in the area of teaching with technology. The Compendium's 400 entries cover a range of topics, from getting started with Microsoft Word to managing communication in an online course to performing a Boolean search. All materials in the Compendium were developed by UNC faculty and staff, who agreed to share their work – free of charge – with colleagues at UNC institutions.

Don't reinvent the wheel.

The UNC TLT Training Compendium offers a single-point of access to save you time and valuable campus resources when training materials are needed. At <http://www.unctl.org/training>, you can browse and download the best that UNC has to offer in technology training for teaching.

- Online Tutorials
- Instructional videos
- Workshop descriptions and syllabi
- Handouts and other resources

Find what you need fast.

Each entry in the Compendium includes controlled subject indexing and abstracting, allowing you to easily browse training by campus, topic or format. Topics include:
